

STEVE KENNEALLY

Chair of the IBFed Value Transfers Network Working Group

Vice President
Center for Payments & Cybersecurity Policy
American Bankers Association

Steve Kenneally works in the Center for Payments & Cybersecurity at ABA on issues ranging from check, ACH, card, wires, as well as coins and paper money to emerging topics such as mobile payments, virtual currencies, blockchain technology, and P2P payments with an eye towards making them faster, safer and frictionless in the future. He is the staff liaison to two standing member committees focused on payments issues. He serves as Chair of the International Banking Federation Value Transfer Network Working Group and serves as ABA's representative on the Federal Reserve Faster Payments Task Force. Prior to joining the ABA in 2005, he served at the United States Department of the Treasury where he managed the private network of banks collecting non-tax payments on behalf of the federal government and drafted regulations and guidance on cash management issues.

Steve earned an MBA from The George Washington University and a BS in Finance from Boston College. He is also is an Accredited ACH Professional (AAP).